

Think First

JEA
press rights
commissioner

Free expression through responsible journalism

Return to John Bowen
at jabowen@ kent.edu or Katy Zupan
at Kzupan@
kent.edu

Scholastic media forum information

Name of school: Public _____ Private _____

Name of student media _____

Location (city and state)

Adviser:

Adviser contact info (phone and e-mail):

Media Web site (if available): _____

Would you be willing to talk with others about your forum status?

____ Yes
____ No

The _____ is a forum by (repeat this section for each student media. Identify the student media by type, i.e. newspaper, broadcast, Web site, etc., and complete a form for each publication or media):

____ Policy (You must include a copy or link to your school board's policy)

____ Practice (Include a brief description of how your publication or media has operated as a forum and affirm there is no contradictory school policy. Include a copy of your publication or media's policy that describes who controls content)

____ Both

____ Length of time as a forum

Three other points:

- Please include a digital or PDF copy of your (or your board's) editorial policy
- If you can include a copy (print or broadcast or a link to your Web site) of reporting made possible by your forum status, please include that
- If you have stories to share about your forum status and how you attained it, please share those
- Did the current adviser have a hand in establishing the policy? If not, who did?

Think First

Materials were produced for this Web site by the Journalism Education Association (<http://jeapressrights.org>) and the Center for Scholastic Journalism (<http://jmc.kent.edu/csaj>).

Free expression through responsible journalism

Think First

Materials were produced for this Web site by the Journalism Education Association (<http://jeapressrights.org>) and the Center for Scholastic Journalism (<http://jmc.kent.edu/cs/>).

Free expression through responsible journalism